REMARKS:

Attached are two letters for your signature for NYC Trip 5 Oct 77. We had hoped to include the New York Council on Foreign Relations. They, however, wanted the same time (1730-1930) as the Harvard Business School Group. We have informed them you will probably be making a trip to New York City in December (to address Economic Club), December is fine with them. No firm commitment yet.

Adm. Stansfield Turner, Director
CIA

Dear Adm. Turner:

On behalf of the ASSU Speakers Bureau, I invite you to address the Stanford community during the 1977-78 academic year. As Director of the CIA (and perhaps soon Director of National Intelligence) you are in charge of the branch of our government that has become of increasing interest and concern to Americans.

You are invited to participate in our Guest in Residence Program, which entails a two or three day stay at Stanford and informal small group meetings with students and faculty leading up to an address before the student body.

If your busy schedule does not allow for such an extended stay, please consider an evening lecture as an alternative. We are completely flexible as far as dates are concerned.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely yours,
